

lesson 19: career path interests and interview setup outcome: Identify careers that align with your values, and then identify a professional to interview within that career pathway.

careers and values

DIRECTIONS: Look at the pictures of the people in their work environments below. Then, discuss:

- Based on the picture, what do you think a “day in the life” of someone in this job might be?
- Based on his/her career choice, what does this person value? What do you think is most important to the individual in your picture? What is least important?
- What transferable skills might the person develop in this job that could help them in other situations or jobs?
